

ARE YOU WILLING TO CONSIDER THE IDEA THAT YOU HAVE THE ABILITY TO REDESIGN YOUR CHARACTER ANY TIME YOU WANT TO?

The character that is called (your name here) is totally the creation of your consciousness and the brain your physical body uses to process information. Therefore, the adage of “change your mind, change your world” is a perfect description for the structure of perceived reality.

The story we have to offer you is one where you can master the unlimited power of Creation to reshape worlds by transforming your beliefs. The foundation concept for what we shall call The Gaia Game is the premise that we are each the author and director of our personal life experiences. As the playwright William Shakespeare famously said, All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players: they have their exits and their entrances; and one man in his time plays many parts... While we are all continuously interacting with each other, everyone lives in their own unique reality and they believe it to be real. It is of course but the point is that it is not identical to anyone else's reality. Different things will be believed to be TRUE by different people. This is because everyone has created/imagined a unique world based on their individual life experiences. You come to believe certain things about yourself and the world that will be the "truth" for you until you change your mind about them. The key is the realization that everything depends on your choices and beliefs. Everything happens as you imagine and believe it to be.
